

Malpractice Consultation

SettlePou's Health Care group serves as personal counsel for providers in malpractice litigation. In this role, the group assists in managing the litigation being primarily handled by insurance defense counsel and advises the provider where there is a conflict between the goals of the malpractice insurance provider and the provider.